

Complimentary Distribution

THE TIMES-DISPATCH has been selected as the one paper in this city for the advance complimentary distribution of this great work. After this introductory distribution—we cannot tell yet what quantity the publishers will allow us for this purpose—the books will then be sold only on installments at $12, by a canvass of national scope conducted by its publishers from house to house.

These few complimentary sets thus placed with its readers by THE TIMES-DISPATCH will be used by the publishers of the books merely as an introductory distribution, so that one's neighbors may have had an opportunity of familiarizing themselves with its great worth, etc., before being called upon within the next few weeks by the installment canvassers.

The wealth

tion comprises a revision of the

ALL the large cyclopedias that retained EVERY item of general and useful interest—

Everything of Value.

Millions of dollars are being spent in advertising EXPENSIVE sets of educational books. The Britannica alone is expending upwards of a million dollars in general publicity in the four-page announcements you have seen run for over a year in every magazine you open. But any expensive set is large and unhandy; they are made up of ten, or twenty, or more books; they are heavy and unwieldy.

The prices of all larger sets are so high—over $100—that they must be sold on the installment plan. The publishers of Everybody's Cyclopaedia took advantage of all these facts, and from a revision of ALL these various large and good cyclopedias, they have compiled all that is good—all that is necessary—and have merely eliminated or condensed that which would be of interest to a specialist or a technical student.
